

Call for participants

States and Nations: Diversity, Domination and Legitimacy

The 9th edition of the International Summer Research Institute, hosted by the Eurac Research, Bolzano-Bozen, South Tyrol, Italy

4-15 June, 2023

Invited scholars from all around Europe, Quebec and Canada will speak to a similarly diverse group of approximately twenty-five graduate students

Among the themes being addressed :

- Democratic Practices
- Human Rights
- Territorial Claims
- Citizenship
- Legal Order
- Authoritarianism
- Populism
- Internal Nations
- First Peoples
- Constituent Powers
- Minority Protection
- Diversity

In addition to daily seminars, there will be field trips to the Ladin Valley and to the regional parliament. Students will be expected to do a short presentation about their research project during the last days of the Summer Institute.

Registration fees apply. Supporting funding for student can be allocated by the organizers. Students will be hosted at a local hotel. Accommodation fees will be covered by the organizers.

For more information, please contact Dave Guénette, assistant director of the Institute : dave.guenette@mail.mcgill.ca

eurac research

GR
SP

Secrétariat aux
relations canadiennes
Québec

UQÀM
Université du Québec à Montréal

upf. Universitat
Pompeu Fabra
Barcelona

JARISLOWSKY
DEMOCRACY
CHAIR

SciencesPo
CENTRE DE RECHERCHES
INTERNATIONALES

CENTRE ON CONSTITUTIONAL CHANGE

Queen's UNIVERSITY

University of Glasgow